- There are many people who want and need to work, but face certain conditions that may make steady employment difficult to secure. Barriers may include people with a history of mental or physical health issues, criminal background, or substance abuse. Veterans, domestic violence survivors, teenage parents, refugees, and those with a lack of work experience, transportation, or child care arrangements also face unique challenges in the workforce.

If you live in the Black Country and you're looking for employment, but you're facing barriers that you're finding difficult to overcome, Thrive want to hear from you! Email the Thrive into Work team. Dudley/Walsall - Bchft.thriveemploymentservice@nhs.net Wolverhampton/Sandwell and West Birmingham – thrive@prospects.co.uk

Thrive into Work

Do you have a health condition and would like support to find or retain work?

The Thrive into Work programme offers one-to-one support to individuals with health conditions who want to find and retain sustainable employment.

NHS

What is the service we are providing?

- One-to-one support to suit your needs and employment goals
- Working with your health care team to help you manage any difficulties
- Benefits advice to find out if work could increase your income
- Help with finding a job if you are not in paid employment, and continued support once you have started
- Help talking to your employer about your needs at work
- Help with retaining your existing job if you require extra support
- Meetings over the phone or in person at a location that is convenient for you.

Who is the service for?

- People with a mental health and/or physical health condition
- People who are out of work and want to work
- People registered with a GP in Dudley, Walsall, Wolverhampton or Sandwell and West Birmingham
- People aged 18+ at the time of referral
- People who require support in work and are at risk of losing their job or on a period of sick leave

How to get involved?

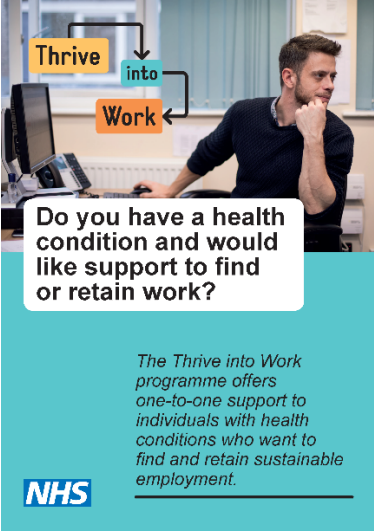

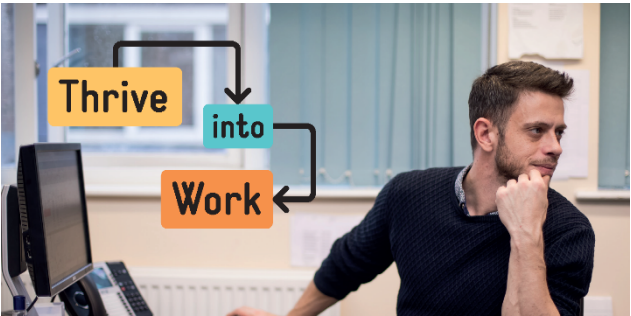

Speak to your GP or local health professional.
